HIALEAH HOSPITAL APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Eugene M. Marini to lead Hialeah Hospital in strategic growth initiatives

HIALEAH, Fla. - February 2011 – Hialeah Hospital is proud to announce the appointment of Eugene M. Marini to the position of Director of Business Development. In his new role, Marini will provide leadership for the development of the hospital's business strategy. He will be responsible for directing the planning and execution of strategic and comprehensive hospital initiatives and business development plans that support Hialeah Hospital's growth into the future.

“We welcome Eugene Marini to our leadership team at Hialeah Hospital, and we are confident that his wealth of experience as a health care executive will contribute to his success with achieving Hialeah Hospital's development goals,” said Ralph Aleman, CEO.

Marini has dedicated much of his career to healthcare executive leadership in South Florida. Prior to becoming Director of Business Development at Hialeah Hospital, Marini was the COO of two skilled nursing facilities from 2007 to 2010. Prior to this position, Marini served as the CEO administrator of a large medical complex and outpatient center for three years.

Marini earned his Bachelor of Science in health administration and Master of Public Health from Florida International University.
